Programs:

Read with MCFL is our adult literacy program. This is our 30th year offering adult literacy services. We are a learner-centered, confidential, free program, and rely on our corps of volunteers to provide services. MCFL has 17 branches, and we host tutoring at 6 of them. Currently, we have 110 volunteer tutors working with 116 adults (some tutors help more than one person). We are always recruiting volunteers, as we have over 75 adults waiting for a tutor.

We also provide Speak Up! Conversation Groups in many of our larger branches. The Groups meet one hour a week, and are facilitated by a volunteer. As you probably know, many English language learners in our county have no one to practice their English with. This is a chance to take their English skills out for a spin in a supportive environment.

Some branches also provide computer skills training and citizenship preparation.

MCFL is always seeking volunteers to tutor adults in English or lead English conversation groups!

MCFL Programs and Services have been impacted, please email hoeffels@co.monterey.ca.us for more information
